day 1

thursday

18/06

DAWN

Fire
cooling down,
Blue flame
spreads as a rising sky.
Rising sun
Things appear
from the dark grounds

Image shifts in accumulation of light,
a drifting haze,
swims through
Daring floating bodies.
Suspension. Silence.

Afterimage,
a mirage?
-It feels like a sigh of relief,
like a burning film,
burning the last wishes, the last particles of dusts,
before the sun fills the sky

DAY

friday

19/06

Static, dazzling:
The buildup of an electrical charge.

Contact,
from one body to another
All particles are dancing, dancing

Excited,
showing off, almost.

There are radio waves over exposing silence...

[suspension of silence]

Diaphragma had been held up and it is reaching saturation

Duration: undetermined.

-Dear Dirty Zenith,
it is not about you.

If you open less, the focus lengthens,

The depth will feel longer

As dimmed daylight through shiny curtains.

Dear dj set,
are you hiding behind the curtains?

END OF THE DAY

ISAC FESTIVAL

day 3

saturday

20/06

DUSK

20/06

Blue light morphs,
blue light steers things
roam-ing

From mutation to mutation Disappearing, almost again, in suspension... silence

The black log, the dark room exposes
You lose sight of your own hands Cracking an image open without looking- in.
As the chemicals merge,
a darkening day emerges slowly, submerging lines,
bending to imagination,
bending to
almost fragility

Gazing
loses static, yet still humming,
dwelling in the dim, drooling in the dark Droopy edges grow fuzzy,
Curious eyes wait closely.

Will you shed my skin, that I wear in between the twilights?
